We cannot write or talk too much of repose, in this busy, hustling world, where people are keyed to such high nerve tension. More mental quiet is an unconscious demand of the race to-day. On every side we meet with this mental unrest, this struggle with burdens of some variety or other, until from the expenditure of nerve torce a large number are among the never-well, always-tired class, after which follows the morbid and finally lusure.

LADIES SHIRT WAIST.

Although the fancy blouse seems to be in the lead this season there are occasions when nothing else but a tailor-made woull be the proper thing to wear. For outdoor sports, for strictly tailor-made suits and for morning wear the design shown is preferable. Such a waist is plain, but a smart sir is given it by the stitching buttons, and, as in this instance, by the newness of the design. Time and skill are the chief factors required in turning out preity waists, but when one selects a pattern that is accurate and explicit half the labor is saved for both amateur and home cresmaker. REPUBLIC SPECIAL.

Jefferson City, Mo., Aug. 10.—The local barbers' union is preparing a petition to be presented to the Board of Prison Inspectors, requesting the boar dto abolish the prison barber shop.

This harber shop is operated by convicts, who shave many citizens and charge the regular price for their tonsorial work. The barber shop, the petition says, is being condincted in violation of the law.

The petition cites the statute, which states that no person shall act as a barber unless he is duly licensed to do so by the State Board of Barber Examiners.

The matter has been agitated here before, but with no results, Governor Dockery was asked to abolish the prison barber shops, but declined to do so.

A member of the Board of Prison Inspectors said to-night that he could not say what action the board would take until the matter was formally presented.

Many viewed the body through the glass. After the services ended and the congregation was dismissed further visits to the church were discouraged.

During the day Cardinal Gibbons telegraphed his condolence. Many messages came from all parts of the United States and from other parts of the world.

The arrancements for the funeral of Archbishon Chapelle were changed again tendish, in view of the desire of the Marine Hospital Service to avert the enthering of a large crowd in the infected district, in the very center of which the Cathedral stands.

The high mass will be sung to-morrow morning, as was done to-day, and the bedy will immediately thereafter be intered in the crypt of the Cathedral.

It will not be generally known that the hour was changed, so that there will be but few present at the funeral obsequies.
